Social Dinner

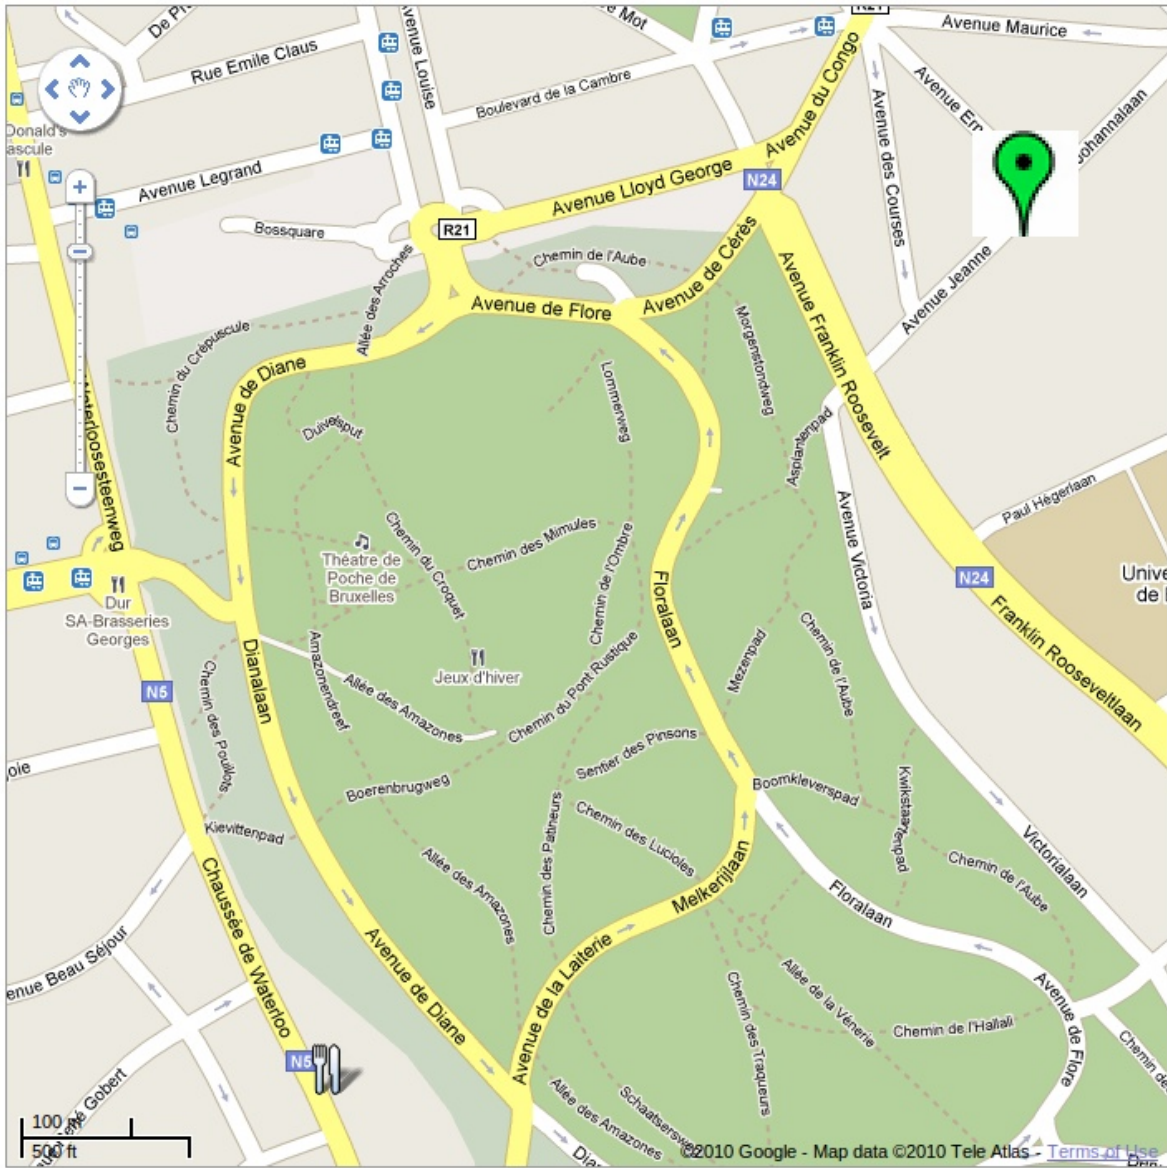

The organizing committee of the ANTS 2010 conference would like to invite all participants to a social dinner at the restaurant Le 830, 830, Chaussée de Waterloo, 1180 Uccle. Le 830 is a restaurant with a traditional Belgian-French kitchen in a very pleasant and charming environment. The ANTS 2010 participants will enjoy a gastronomical journey full of flavors, smells and colors.

We will meet on Wednesday 8 at 18:30 just after the poster session, at the main entrance of Building S (the conference building) and walk to the restaurant together.

Remember to have your invitation with you. Guest invitations can be purchased at the ANTS 2010 registration desk.

If you need more information about buses, trams and subways, please refer to the Brussels transportation map which is included in your conference materials folder (received at registration).

The restaurant is at ca. 30 min. walking distance of the three hotels around Avenue Louise (Beau-Site, White Hotel, Izan) from the ANTS 2010 webpage.
